Victim Assistance Resources

The Victim Bill of Rights provides victims of crime with the right to be notified of and participate in all major phases of a criminal case, in accordance with the provisions of the bill, the below information is provided to you.

1. You have received a copy of the incident report taken by the police which includes the date of the complaint and the case number, as well as other helpful information. You may contact the police department to check the status of arrest of the defendant. Keep this copy for your reference.
2. Be advised the defendant in your case, unless he/she has been charged with a capital crime, has the right to bail or other pre-trial release, and therefore, may not be held in jail until trial.
3. The Violent Crimes Compensation Board has been established to assist those innocent victims of crime who sustain personal injury (bodily harm or extreme mental suffering.) The board, on a limited basis, may compensate victims of violent crimes some property loss or damage. You may be eligible for financial assistance if:
  - a. You are an innocent victim of a violent crime.
  - b. You cooperate with the law enforcement agencies in the apprehension, and prosecution of the assailant.
  - c. You did not contribute to the infliction of your injuries
4. Services are available for victims of crime throughout the State of Delaware. The police departments make referrals to victim assistance resources. Below is an additional list of victim assistance resources. Do not hesitate to call any of these resources for assistance
